

The board will annually review and determine its staffing needs for non-certificated employees. The board authorizes the superintendent or designee to hire employees to fill open, non-certificated positions in the district, as needed, and create new positions when an emergency arises. Non-certificated personnel will be hired based upon their qualifications for the position.

Non-certificated personnel are at-will employees with no property rights in their employment. Non-certificated personnel are not entitled to any expectations of future employment with the district.
